Rules and Procedures Governing Admission to the Practice of Law

*****

Rule 105. Waivers.
(a) The Board may, for good cause shown by clear and convincing evidence, waive any rule or approval required from the Board which relates to the admission to the practice of law in Wyoming; provided, however, the Board shall not waive statutory requirements or filing fees, nor shall the Board waive the required passing scores on the MPRE or UBE. The decision of the Board not to waive any rule herein subject to waiver may be appealed to the Court.

(b) The Wyoming Supreme Court is the final authority as to whether an applicant may be admitted to the practice of law in Wyoming. The Court may, under circumstances it deems sufficient, waive any requirement related to the admission to the practice of law in the State of Wyoming.
