You, the above named Judgment Debtor, are hereby notified that money in the possession of your employer has been seized by garnishment. If you believe the money seized is exempt from garnishment, you may object to the garnishment and have a hearing before the Court. You have five (5) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, from receipt of the calculation of exempt earnings within which to resolve the miscalculation with the garnishee, your employer. During this time the Garnishee, your employer, is required to hold the garnished funds. If the issue is not resolved within five (5) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, the garnished funds must be paid over to the clerk of court and you may file a written objection with the clerk setting forth with reasonable detail the grounds for the objection. Your objection must be filed with the clerk of court and you must mail a copy to the Judgment Creditor or his/her attorney of record within five (5) days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, from the date the garnished funds are received by the clerk of court. If your objection is not filed within the time allowed, the clerk of court will pay the garnished funds to the Judgment Creditor. W.S. § 1-15-507(a) (LexisNexis 2019).
